I really like this book because it has adventure in it and I can relate to the characters very easily. Letty's sister Lavinia is going to Australia on the Duchess. Is it a good idea going by yourself?

The Duchess was ready to set sail and Letty's sister still hadn't come back from getting last minute things. 'I'll find her' said Letty's father. But when her sister and father don't come back and the last luggage is going on what will Letty do?

I find that ages 8-11 will enjoy it the most but any younger might not understand it as well. You are going to have to read it to find out what happened next!
