

Mother and Child

Artist - Kathleen O'Connor

Dates - c. 1937

Kathleen Laetitia O'Connor (1876-1968), was born on 14 September 1876. A lively mimic and tease, she was educated at Marsden School, Wellington, and from 1891 in Western Australia was taught privately. Kate studied art at the Perth Technical School under James Linton and taught the subject part time at Evelyn Hill's school, Perth, about 1902; she exhibited with the Western Australian Society of Arts before working briefly in Sydney as a decorator.
