

So Many Happy Ever Afters

Artist - Tanya Jaceglav

"My work is an investigation of the banality of the everyday. I'm interested in creating narratives that come from a personal space but speak of our universal human experience. The themes of my current work are nostalgia, memory and identity."