

Shire of Northam ART COLLECTION

The Old Malhouses

Artist - Francis Roy Thompson (1896—1966)

Dates - Not dated

Born in Victoria in 1896, Thompson studied at the National Gallery School, Melbourne, and at the Westminster School in London. From 1943 to 1953 he taught at Scotch College in Melbourne, later moving to South Australia where he became a prominent member of the Contemporary Art Society and the Society of Artists. Thompson's works are represented in several major state and provincial collections. He died in 1966.