

Community Giving guideline and application form

Our Community Giving program invites local grass-roots organisations to apply for up to $5,000 to support Western Australian communities where we work and live, including those neighbouring our operations and regional FIFO communities.

Applications are open February to November each year

Our Focus Areas

Thriving communities

Contribute to healthy resilient communities and wellbeing; local service and social infrastructure delivery

Creating opportunities

Build diverse local economies and regional economic development; help children and young people reach their potential through quality education and training opportunities

Caring for Country

Promote healing and cultural knowledge sharing; long term preservation and management of cultural heritage; ongoing access to healing and care of Country; rehabilitation, cultural land management and closure..

Who can apply?

Local community groups, charitable or not-for-profit organisations delivering initiatives in communities where Rio Tinto Iron Ore and Dampier Salt Limited operate and have an impact, including across the Pilbara region, Peel, Great Southern, Mid West, South West, Wheatbelt, Carnarvon, Broome and Derby.

How much can I apply for?

Each organisation can apply for a minimum of $500 to a maximum of $5,000 per calendar year. Rio Tinto may not necessarily fund the whole (or any) of the requested grant, even if they meet the funding criteria.

What we will consider

Rio Tinto will consider applications for initiatives that provide benefit to communities where we live and work and are aligned with our focus areas.

Application examples include but are not limited to;

- Sporting associations to purchase equipment/uniforms for ongoing use by the clubs
- Capacity building for associations to upskill umpires, coaches, etc
- Community organisations to host events that promote community connection
- Community organisations to improve or expand their resources to support program delivery
- Awards events focused on celebrating local 'champions'
- Costs towards an organisation hosting mental health workshops open to all community members
- Costs towards an engagement program for youth to have improved opportunities during the school holidays
- Materials to improve a community garden
- Equipment to support the improved day-to-day running of community organisations such as technology/ furniture
- Equipment to run projects on Country – i.e. laptops, satellite phone, shade structures
- Resources such as books, craft, cooking equipment to support for organisations that run programs engaging children outside of school hours
- Programs that support elderly and vulnerable community members
- Costs towards training for not-for-profit organisations such as social media, financial, marketing, advertising

What won't be supported?

- Organisations that have not acquitted previous Rio Tinto funding
- Individuals or for-profit companies
- State government agency requests
- Political, partisan, religious or sectarian associations
- Core government services such as education or health programs
- Events and initiatives may not be supported year on year, please reach out to discuss your application if you would like any further clarification
- Organisations supporting communities outside of where we live and work
- Organisations that have a current social investment partnership agreement in place with Rio Tinto
- Events or initiatives that have already occurred
- Operational and/or day-to-day costs including but not limited to rent, utility bills, wages
- Travel away from communities where we live and work including flights and accommodation
- Merchandise including show bags and consumables
- Fundraising initiatives – including but not limited to charity dinners, quiz nights, raffle prizes and cash prizes
- Individual sporting clubs where there is an overarching association or league (excludes Pilbara)
- Community events where entry or ticket price may present a barrier to participation
- Individual registration fees and uniform costs
- Replacement items previously funded by Rio Tinto
